WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE

DISCIPLINARY HEARING COMMISSION

OF THE

NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR

11 DHC 22

THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR,

Plaintiff

v.

LISA B. ARNOLD, Attorney,

Defendant

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, complaining of Defendant, alleges and says:

1. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar ("State Bar"), is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the North Carolina General Statutes, and the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar (Chapter 1 of Title 27 of the North Carolina Administrative Code).

2. Defendant, Lisa B. Arnold ("Arnold" or "Defendant"), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar on August 24, 2001, and is, and was at all times referred to herein, subject to the laws of the State of North Carolina, the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar, and the Rules of Professional Conduct.

3. During the relevant periods referred to herein, Arnold was engaged in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina at a law office in Cary, Wake County, North Carolina, Bunn & Arnold, PLLC ("Bunn & Arnold").

4. The Bunn & Arnold Operating Agreement signed by the partners, including Arnold, in December of 2006 required that all fees earned by the partners be deposited into the Bunn & Arnold operating account and that the members of the firm must maintain a positive capital account (after payment of their percentage of the firm's expenses) in order to draw income.

5. In early 2008, Arnold became the managing partner for Bunn & Arnold, with primary responsibility for the firm's issuance of checks, making of deposits, and meeting monthly with the bookkeeper.

6. Effective as of August 29, 2007, the State Bar administratively suspended Arnold from the practice of law due to her failure to comply with mandatory continuing legal education ("CLE") requirements. Arnold has not been reinstated to active membership in the State Bar.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

7. Paragraphs 1 through 6 are re-alleged and fully incorporated as if set forth herein.

8. Jo Stanley Tyler ("Tyler") retained Arnold on June 18, 2008 to close the sale of her business, The Teacher's Store, LLC to purchasers Stephen E. Hopfer and Angela D. Hopfer (the "Hopfers").

9. Arnold charged Tyler a $3,500 fee for closing the sale of Tyler's business.

10. Arnold held herself out to Tyler from May of 2008 through early September of 2009 as an active member of the State Bar authorized to practice law in North Carolina.

11. Arnold undertook legal representation of Tyler from May of 2008 through early September of 2009 while Arnold's law license was administratively suspended.

12. On September 8, 2008, Arnold deposited into the Bunn & Arnold trust account a $3,000 check from Tyler representing the earnest money deposit from the Hopfers for the purchase of Tyler's business.

13. The Hopfers' $3,000 earnest money deposit was to be applied toward their purchase of Tyler's business. There was no agreement or understanding that the earnest money deposit should be disbursed in payment of any attorney fee.

14. Without the knowledge or authorization of Tyler or the Hopfers, and before the closing of the sale of Tyler's business to the Hopfers, Arnold disbursed $2,725.00 of the Hopfers' $3,000 earnest money deposit as attorney fees to Bunn & Arnold to be credited to Arnold's Bunn & Arnold capital account as follows:

Check Number	Amount	Payee	Date
Check no. 4184	$2,000	Bunn & Arnold	September 9, 2008
Check no. 4188	$400	Bunn & Arnold	September 24, 2008
Check no. 4193	$325	Bunn & Arnold	October 8, 2008

15. On or about September 24, 2008, Arnold disbursed to herself from the Hopfers' earnest money deposit in the Bunn & Arnold trust account check no. 4189 in the amount of $275.

16. On April 3, 2009, another law firm closed the sale of Tyler's business to the Hopfers. Arnold contacted the settlement attorney and informed him that she already had the Hopfers' $3,000 in earnest money in the Bunn & Arnold trust account such that instead of Arnold receiving a $3,500 fee for the closing, the settlement attorney should disburse only a balance of $500 to Bunn & Arnold.

17. Arnold's representation to the settlement attorney that she had $3,000 of the Hopfers' earnest money in the Bunn & Arnold trust account at that time was false.

18. On April 6, 2009, the settlement attorney wired Tyler's closing proceeds ($115,128.71) plus $500 to the Bunn & Arnold trust account for disbursement.

19. The $115,128.71 was delivered to Arnold in trust to be held in the Bunn & Arnold trust account for the benefit of Tyler.

20. On April 9, 2009, Tyler met with Arnold. Tyler agreed to pay Arnold an additional $4,000 fee for negotiating settlements with Tyler's vendors and paying remaining debts of The Teacher's Store from the sale proceeds held in trust by Arnold. Tyler agreed to pay Bunn & Arnold $2,000 in advance that same date from Tyler's funds in the Bunn & Arnold trust account, with the balance due upon Arnold's completion of the agreed-upon legal services.

21. After making the agreed disbursement of $2,000 to Bunn & Arnold as set forth in paragraph 20, Arnold made unauthorized disbursements to the Bunn & Arnold operating account from Tyler's funds in the Bunn & Arnold trust account, including check no. 4297 in the amount of $2,045.23 on April 14, 2009 and check no. 4309 in the amount of $2,000 on April 29, 2009.

22. Arnold made entries in the Bunn & Arnold accounting system representing that the deposits made in the Bunn & Arnold operating account set forth in paragraph 21 were attorney fee receipts and/or expense reimbursements from Tyler.

23. Arnold's accounting entries set forth in paragraph 22 were false.

24. Arnold misappropriated to her personal use and benefit the $4,045.23 set forth in paragraph 21.

25. On or about May 29, 2009, without Tyler's authorization, Arnold disbursed to the Bunn & Arnold operating account check no. 4323 in the amount of $5,000 from Tyler's funds in the Bunn & Arnold trust account.

26. On June 10, 2009, Arnold made an entry in the Bunn & Arnold accounting system representing that she had made a capital contribution to Bunn & Arnold in the amount of $5,000.

27. Arnold's accounting entry set forth in paragraph 26 was false.

28. Arnold misappropriated to her personal use and benefit the $5,000 set forth in paragraph 25.

29. On or about July 13, 2009, Arnold forwarded to Tyler a worksheet which purported to account for the fiduciary funds received and disbursed by Arnold on behalf of Tyler.

30. In her worksheet, Arnold represented to Tyler that she had offered settlement amounts of $1,000 to the Evan-Moor Corporation and $1,750 to the Melissa & Doug vendor, when in fact Arnold had offered those creditors $350 and $700 respectively.

31. In her worksheet, Arnold represented to Tyler that she had paid certain amounts to vendors and creditors, including the following: $14,546.17 in payment of "taxes"; $625 to Carson Dellosa; $325 to Creative Teaching; and $875 to Teacher Created.

32. Arnold's representations set forth in paragraph 31 were false as Arnold actually paid the following amounts: $9,823.17 to the North Carolina Department of Revenue, a discrepancy of $4,723; $210 to Carson Dellosa, a discrepancy of $415, but payment was not made by Arnold to Dellosa until August 19, 2009, over one month after Arnold provided the worksheet to Tyler; $185 to Creative Teaching, a discrepancy of $140; and $275 to Teacher Created, a discrepancy of $600, but payment was not made to Teacher Created until August 3, 2009, almost one month after Arnold provided the worksheet to Tyler.

33. Following the receipt of Tyler's fiduciary funds on April 6, 2009, Arnold disbursed from the Bunn & Arnold trust account to herself a total of $4,200 as follows:

Check Number	Amount	Payee	Date
Check no. 4284	$500	Bunn & Arnold	April 7, 2009
Check no. 4273	$500	Arnold	April 10, 2009
Check no. 4294	$500	Arnold	April 13, 2009
Check no. 4304	$500	Arnold	April 17, 2009
Check no. 4305	$1,000	Arnold	April 20, 2009

Check no. 4306	$750	Arnold	April 22, 2009
Check no. 4322	$150	Arnold	May 28, 2009
Check no. 4324	$300	Arnold	June 23, 2009

34. In her July 13, 2009 worksheet, Arnold represented to Tyler that she had disbursed attorney fees to Bunn & Arnold in the amount of $2,500 from the funds held in the Bunn & Arnold trust account for the benefit of Tyler.

35. The representation set forth in paragraph 34 was false.

36. In fact, at the time she made the representation set forth in paragraph 34, Arnold had disbursed to Bunn & Arnold and/or to herself a total of $18,245.23 in purported attorney fees, $10,745.23 more than the $7,500 Tyler agreed to pay in attorney fees.

37. On October 6, 2009, Tyler filed a grievance with the State Bar. The grievance was assigned file number 09G1189.

38. On January 26, 2010, the State Bar served its Letter of Notice upon Arnold by certified mail regarding grievance file number 09G1189.

39. The Letter of Notice notified Arnold that she must provide a written response within 15 days. Arnold did not respond within that period.

40. On June 3, 2010, the Wake County Superior Court entered a Consent Order of Preliminary Injunction ("Consent Order").

41. The Consent Order required Arnold to "immediately produce to the North Carolina State Bar for inspection and copying all of [her] financial records relating to any account into which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited, including, but not limited to bank statements, canceled checks, deposit slips, client ledgers, check stubs, debit memos and any other records relating to the receipt and disbursement of client and/or fiduciary funds."

42. On June 17, 2010, the State Bar sent Arnold a letter demanding that she produce on or before June 22, 2010, certain bank records as required by the Consent Order.

43. Arnold failed to provide her bank records as required by the Consent Order, and otherwise failed to respond to the State Bar's June 17, 2010 demand for the bank records.

THEREFORE, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's foregoing actions constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 84-28(b)(2) and (b)(3) in that Defendant violated the Rules of Professional Conduct as follows:

a) By holding herself out to Tyler as an active member of the State Bar authorized to practice law in North Carolina at a time when her law license was suspended, and by undertaking to provide and providing legal services to Tyler while her law license was suspended, Arnold engaged in the unauthorized practice of law in violation of Rules 5.5(a) and 5.5(b)(2), made false or misleading statements about her or her practice in violation of Rule 7.1(a), and engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in violation of Rule 8.4(c);

b) By taking payments from Tyler for legal services which she falsely represented she had performed but had not in fact performed, and by making disbursements to herself and to Bunn & Arnold in excess of the fees Tyler had agreed to pay, Arnold charged and collected an illegal or clearly excessive fee in violation of Rule 1.5(a);

c) By failing to pay Tyler's identified vendors and creditors from Tyler's entrusted funds, Arnold failed to promptly pay these third persons as directed by Tyler in violation of Rule 1.15-2(m);

d) By making false entries into the Bunn & Arnold accounting system and by falsely representing that she had paid Tyler's identified vendors and creditors in amounts greater than what she actually did, Arnold engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in violation of Rule 8.4(c);

e) By disbursing to herself and to Bunn & Arnold funds held in trust for the benefit of the Hopfers and Tyler without authorization to do so, Arnold used entrusted property for her personal benefit in violation of Rule 1.15-2(j) and committed criminal acts that reflect adversely on her honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer in violation of Rule 8.4(b); and,

f) By failing to respond to the State Bar's Letter of Notice regarding grievance file no. 09G1189, and by failing to respond to the State Bar's letter demanding that she produce certain bank records as required by the Consent Order, Arnold failed to respond as required to a lawful demand for information from a disciplinary authority in violation of Rule 8.1(b) and N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(b)(3).

45. In 2008, Alfonso J. Vergara ("Vergara") sought Arnold's legal services to obtain a small business loan for his business, Summa General Contractors, LLC ("Summa").

46. Arnold held herself out to Vergara at the time as an active member of the State Bar authorized to practice law in North Carolina.

47. Vergara and Summa proceeded with the construction project without the loan.

48. Vergara did not pay Arnold or Bunn & Arnold any fee or other funds to be held in trust for him or Summa.

On October 9, 2008, Arnold made an entry in the Bunn & Arnold accounting system indicating that Vergara had paid Bunn & Arnold an attorney fee by check in the amount of $1,000 and that this $1,000 had been deposited into the Bunn & Arnold operating account. That same date, Arnold credited her Bunn & Arnold capital account with the $1,000 attorney fee from Vergara.

52. Arnold's accounting entries set forth in paragraph 51 were false.

53. On October 14, 2008, Arnold disbursed to herself from the Bunn & Arnold trust account check no. 4197 in the amount of $202. Arnold wrote "Vergara – exp reimbursement" on the memo line of this check.
